

J3 Resources, Inc. is a company of people serving people with a corporate culture of giving back to society whenever possible.

At J3, we believe that a strong community starts with its members taking the time and making the effort to get involved. When we become an active part of a bigger cause, we realize our power to make a difference!

Lee & Duane complete the MS-150 bike ride to support the National Multiple Sclerosis Society. This year marks Duane's 10th year to participate and Lee's 4th

Cathy serves as a volunteer court appointed Guardian ad Litem for Child Advocates, Inc.

J3 supports its employees as strong members of the community with a social responsibility to get involved.

Duane & Alexandra share their gift of music with parishioners at the Blessed Sacrament Church

Scott leads the Willow Pointe Homeowner Association as President to ensure the success of the neighborhood community

Through getting involved and helping others, we realize our true strengths.

Cat volunteers as a karate instructor teaching self defense techniques to children and adults

Julie leads group fitness classes at Lifetime Fitness to promote a healthy lifestyle

Child Advocates, Inc. mobilizes court appointed volunteers to break the vicious cycle of child abuse.

The Wounded Warrior Project is a nonprofit organization whose stated mission is to "honor and empower wounded warriors" of the United States Armed Forces with a vision to "foster the most successful, well-adjusted generation of wounded service members in our nation's history".

Star of Hope is a Christ-centered community dedicated to meeting the needs of homeless men, women and their children.

Bo's Place is a bereavement center offering grief support to children, ages 3-18 and their families who have experienced the death of a child or an adult in their immediate family, as well as programs for grieving adults.

Children at Heart Foundation is a family of Christian ministries that exists to honor God and build a better world by serving children and strengthening families.